

PAUL THENS

GRAPHIC DESIGN

Art Institute of Las Vegas

10/07 - Current

At ALLV, I work as a graphic design instructor teaching students the skills required to be successful in the industry. I develop projects that reflect real-world challenges and work to bring out the strongest skills of each student.

Freelance Designer

02/00 - Current

As a freelance designer, I create ads, logos and collateral for international corporations and small businesses. Additionally, I design packaging and promotional materials including posters, tour support materials and apparel for the music industry.

Life & Style Magazine

11/05 - 06/06

As Creative Director, I oversaw the appearance of the publication. I designed layouts, advertisements, and directed photo shoots. I was also the contact person for the printer.
